The Chariho Task Force on Substance Abuse Prevention's Tobacco Control Program Coordinator, Astrid Meijer, and President of the Chariho Community SADD Group, Dan Fitzgerald, are coordinating a Photovoice Project called, “Kicking Tobacco’s Butt, One Photo at a Time.” Students have created triptychs using photographs, depicting why they resist tobacco marketing, the shocking results of tobacco litter in nature, the negative impact of nicotine addiction & environmental smoke, and how to stay positive in light of peer pressures. This installment of artistic activism will be on display at the Arcadia YMCA. Time: March 17 - March 30.
